

INTERNATIONAL MOTHER LANGUAGE DAY

Celebrate your mother tongue, and unlock your mind!

Your first language shapes you - your culture, identity, thoughts, feelings.

It preserves heritage and provides a better understanding of other cultures and traditions.

It helps children learn other languages.

Using it in school bridges knowledge gaps, and promotes better memory retention.

Being able to speak more than one language increases problem-solving abilities and cognitive flexibility.

